St. James's.

St. James's, November 19. The following Addreſs from the City of Dublin, was preſented to his Majeſty by John Eccles Eſq; one of the Aldermen of the ſaid City; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, at an Aſſembly held at the Tholſeil of the ſaid City on the third Day of November. 1714.

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, with Hearts filled, on this glorious Occaſion, with ſuch an unſpeakable Joy as will be better teſtified by our Duty and Obedience, than 'tis in the Power of Words to declare; your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects of this City being highly affected with that Eſteem for your Perſon and Government which is due from a grateful People to the conſummate Wiſdom, Juſtice, and Experience of the greateſt and beſt of Princes.

When we conſider that the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe is ſtrengthened, our Fears of Popery and Arbitrary Power diſpelled, and our Liberties ſecured to us upon ſo firm and laſting a Foundation by your peaceable Acceſſion to the Crown, we cannot ſufficiently admire that Providence which accompliſhed it, nor do Honour enough to the Memory of that Prince, who ſettled the Crown in your Royal Family.

We of this City early felt the happy Effects of it, when our Civil Liberties were invaded, our Endeavours to defend them traduced as factious, and our Perſons and Reputations expoſed to the Inſults and Reproaches of the vileſt of the People, when the Adminiſtration of Juſtice in this City had been for many Months ſuſpended, and we (for want of Magiſtrates) reduced to a State of Confuſion by the unaccountable Adminiſtration of ſome Men, who made it a Merit to oppreſs us; in this Extremity your Majeſty's Royal Juſtice relieved us.

May your Majeſty long live to enjoy the Reward that is due to thoſe who vindicate the Cauſe of the Oppreſſed, and after many, very many Years, may your Memory be tranſmitted to Poſterity under the glorious Character of having been a Father of your People, a Terror to your Enemies, and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt of all Europe; and may theſe Kingdoms never want one of your Royal Progeny to rule and govern them. In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed.

Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and at the ſame time conferred the Honour of Knighthood upon Alderman Eccles.

St. James's, November 19. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in the County of Somerſet, in behalf of themſelves and their Congregations; preſented to his Majeſty by Mr. Henry Chandler of Bath, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Wharton, Lord Privy-Seal.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders aſſembled at a Quarter Seſſions held at Dungarvan for the County of Waterford the 4th Day of October laſt; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Grandiſon, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterburgh; preſented to his Majeſty by the Lord Biſhop of Peterburgh, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and the Biſhop with the Clergy attending him had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

An humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, and other Gentlemen, Inhabitants of the Corporation of Strahan in the County of Tyrone, and Kingdom of Ireland; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Fermanagh; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Leverpoole in the County Palatine of Lancaſter; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Earl of Derby, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County, attended by ſeveral Gentlemen Free of the ſaid Corporation.

All which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stockholm, Octob. 30. N. S. The King's Orders relating to the Taxes, and the furniſhing Men for the Regiments which are directed to be made compleat, have not yet been publiſhed by the Regency; 'tis thought that they may expect his Majeſty's further Pleaſure upon his Arrival in Germany; becauſe theſe two Articles ſeem to be very diſagreeable to the whole Kingdom in their preſent Circumſtances, it was reſolved ſome time ſince to melt down a conſiderable Number of Braſs Canon, which were taken by Juſtavus Adolphus, and the two laſt Kings of Sweden in their Foreign Wars, in order to coin them into Plates, which is a ſort of Money currant here for Rixdollars. But the King not approving that theſe Trophys of his Royal Anceſtors ſhould be deſtroyed, a ſtop has been put to this Work, and the Canon which were not already ſplit were carried back into the Arſenal. However there is about 80000 Rixdollars of this Coin ſtruck. The King has given ſtrict Order for remitting a conſiderable Sum of Money to Hamburg forthwith, to be ready for his Majeſty's Service when he comes into Germany. This Remittance will be very difficult, eſpecially ſince the Bank here, which uſed to be the Reſource on all ſuch Emergencies, is at preſent very low in Credit. General Taube has not yet adjuſted with the Magiſtrates the Settlement of the Winter Quarters for the Troops which were deſigned to lodge in this Town next Winter, the Burghers refuſing to receive above 1600 Men, Foot Forces. The late Chancellor Count Oxenſtierna's Houſe is fitting up for the Reception of the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, tho' 'tis ſaid that he is not expected here till next Spring. The French Reſident preſented lately a Memorial in his Maſter's Name, demanding Satisfaction for all the Ships and Effects of the French Subjects, which have been ſeized and confiſcated, for offering to go to the Ports in the Baltick now in the Poſſeſſion of the Czar. The 23d being the Birth-Day of the Queen Grand-mother, on which ſhe entred into the 79th Year of her Age, her Majeſty received the uſual Compliments upon this Occaſion.

Warſaw, Novemb. 10. N. S. We are in daily Expectation of hearing of the King of Sweden's Arrival in Germany; in the mean while we are under great Uncertainties as to that Prince's Intentions, and conſequently in much Suſpence what turn Affairs in the North, and particularly in this Kingdom will take; Count Vitzthum who has been ſent by his Poliſh Majeſty to the Czar, will endeavour to remove ſuch Miſunderſtandings as may have ariſen between the two Courts. The King is daily giving Audience to the Deputies of the ſeveral Palatinates of this Kingdom, who all repreſent after one and the ſame Manner, the great Miſery of the Country, the Burthen of the Contributions, and the unanimous Deſire of the Poles to have the Saxon Troops ſent away: The Anſwer returned to them is in Subſtance much the ſame as that which was formerly mentioned to have been given to the Palatinate of Sendomir. Major-General Goltz, one of the two Miniſters whom his Majeſty lately had at the Ottoman Port, arrived here to Day; and the other, the Palatine of Mazovin, is expected to Morrow. The Velt-Marſhall Flemming is preparing to go to Brunſwick, to aſſiſt at the Conferences for the Peace of the North. Major-General Goltz reports, that the Turks make very great Preparations for War, eſpecially by Sea, and he ſuppoſes their Deſign is againſt the Morea.

Hambourg, Nov. 20. N. S. The Imperial Miniſters at Brunſwick, in a late Conference with M. Roſenerantz the Daniſh Miniſter, acquainted him by Order from the Emperor, that his Imperial Majeſty has approved the Reſolutions paſſed by the Diet of the Empire on the following Points. 1. That Holſtein ought to be reſtored. 2. That the Duke of Mecklenbourg ought to be reimburſed the Loſſes ſuſtained by the Paſſage of the Daniſh Troops and others through the Dutchies of Swerin and Guſtrow, which by an Accompt taken amount to two Millions of Crowns. 3. That the Loſſes ſuffered by the Towns of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hambourg, from the ſaid Troops, be made good to each Town reſpectively. The Daniſh Miniſter promiſed to communicate this to the King his Maſter. 'Tis adviſed from Copenhagen, that the 17th Inſtant the Swediſh General Count Steenbock was committed to cloſe Confinement in the Citadel of that Place; and the King of Denmark's Miniſter here has received Orders to declare, that his Majeſty will cauſe the Reaſons of this rigorous Proceeding againſt the ſaid Count to be made publick. 'Tis reported, that on the earneſt Inſtances of General Dukker, the Duke of Mecklenbourg has given Leave for 4 Regiments of Swedes, which are in Pomerania, to paſs into his Territories for their more commodious Subſiſtance, Pomerania being no longer able to ſubſiſt ſo many Troops.

Ratisbon, Nov. 15. N. S. On the 5th and 6th Inſtant the Diet was aſſembled to draw up full Powers for General Roht to take Poſſeſſion of Fort Kehl for the Empire, the Emperor having nominated him for that Employment. On the 9th the Miniſters who have the Care of the Affairs of the King of Great Britain as Elector of Hanover and Duke of Zell, entred a Proteſtation in the College of the Electors, and in that of the Princes for preſerving his Rank as Eighth Elector, and his Office of High-Treaſurer of the Empire, which muſt return to the Elector Palatine, if the Elector of Bavaria ſhould be entirely reſtored to the Dignities he formerly enjoyed. In a Meeting of the Diet on the 12th the Swediſh Miniſter gave in a Proteſtation againſt the plenary Reſtitution of the Elector of Bavaria, purſuant to particular Orders which he had received, to ſecond the Proteſtation made in the Name of the Elector Palatine, for preſerving the Rights of the Palatine Family, to which the King of Sweden is nearly related. We have no Advice yet of that King's being come into Tranſylvania. M. Friſchberg, who is newly appointed to reſide at the Diet on the Part of his Britannick Majeſty, as Elector and Prince of the Empire, arrived here the 10th.

Paris, Nov. 24. N. S. We have Advice from Nancy, that on the 12th of this Month the French Troops evacuated that place, and retired to Toul: The ſame Day the Duke of Lorrain's Troops entred Nancy, and took Poſſeſſion of the Citadel, and of the Gates of the Town. The Queen of Spain arrived at Montpellier the 7th Inſtant, and on the 9th proceeded on her Journey. She takes her way by Toulouſe, and St. Jean Pied de Port, to Pampelona. M. Fabius Bruſlart de Silery, Biſhop of Soiſſons, one of the Forty of the French Academy, died here the 20th.

Hague, Nov. 23. N. S. The 21ſt Baron Dalwick Miniſter of the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, ſet out from hence for Paris, in order (as is given out) to compliment the French King in the Name of the Landgrave his Maſter, on the Concluſion of the Peace between the Empire and France. The ſaid Miniſter is from thence to paſs over to England, by the way of Calais, to Congratulate his Britannick Majeſty on his Acceſſion to the Throne. Count Efferen, Miniſter of the Elector Palatine, waits ſtill for Letters from his Court, before he proceeds to England for the ſame purpoſe. Lieutenant General Cadogan having delivered his Credentials to the States-General, and had two or three Conferences on the Subject of the Barrier, deſigns to make a Tour to Amſterdam, and from thence to go back to Antwerp. M. Vander Duſſen and Count Rechteren, their High Mightineſſes Deputies for regulating the Barrier, having received new Inſtructions, will likewiſe ſet out to Morrow for Antwerp. We are informed, that the March of part of the Imperial Troops into the Provinces of Limbourg and Luxembourg, is ſuſpended 'till further Orders. Don Lewis d'Acunha, Plenipotentiary of the King of Portugal, came hither this Morning from Utrecht, and his Collegue Count Tarouca is expected this Evening.
